

Bats

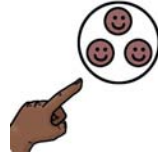

There are many different kinds of bats.

Bats sleep during the day. They hang upside down when they sleep. Many bats spend the day in caves. When it is night, they fly out of the caves to hunt for food. Bats eat insects and fruit.

Bats are mammals. Mammals give birth to their young, produce milk, are warm - blooded and have fur. Bats are the only mammals that can fly.